

Dear Brother

Written By: R.W.

(Posted May 2015)

Dear Brother,

Realize that you can't
if there's support that you don't have .
Realize that you need it is a good thing and not bad.
Realize we were never meant
to carry it alone.
Realize where your heart's at peace
is the real definition of home.
Realize that those heavy breaths of despair
were at times felt by one and all.
Realize no one is super human
to always win and never fall.
Realize we are all of the belief that what makes us all real men is that whenever a fall inevitably comes we'll stand up and try again.

Love,

Your Brother