

Goodbye My Wicked Beloved

My fantasies, I hold you dear
I wish that all of you were here
You take me away from any fear
I love you with all my heart.
But yet I know you're bad for me
You don't let me live up to my morality
You pull me down stronger than gravity
I'm afraid we'll have to part.
But don't worry, other friends I'll surely find
Friends who'll teach me love of the real kind
Which will fill me with purpose and peace of mind
They'll stand beside me, these men.
And though I will miss you so
And sometimes I'll slip and to you I'll go
I tell you now, so you should know
I'll always get back away again.
